

Congregation Beth HaMidbar

INVITES YOU TO THE OPENING OF

“ISRAEL IMPRESSIONS”

AN EXHIBIT OF PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN IN ISRAEL BY

PAUL MARGOLIS

a documentary and fine art photographer whose subjects include people living on the margins of society, vanishing Americana, historic architecture, and the vibrancy of life on New York City's streets. For the past 5 years, Paul has been travelling to Israel working in the streets, marketplaces, and homes with his quiet, discreet Leica camera and black and white film, which he processes and prints himself, photographing in a fluid, fast-moving reportorial style, attempting to capture, preserve, and convey slices of everyday life in the vibrant, exciting Jewish State. He often combines images with text, both his own and in collaboration with writers and historians. His website is paulmargolis.com.

BE TREATED TO A SPECTACULAR EVENING AND PRESENTATION BY MR. MARGOLIS SHOWING THE DIVERSITY OF PEOPLE AND CULTURES THROUGH HIS PHOTOGRAPHY OF JEWS, CHRISTIANS, AND MUSLIMS IN MODERN ISRAEL AND HIS DISCUSSION ON HOW HE DOES HIS DOCUMENTARY WORK. HE WILL PRESENT FOR 45 MINUTES AND ENTERTAIN QUESTIONS FOR 15 MINUTES.
